Punta Sayulita Announces Sponsorship of Top Rated Local Surfer, Adan Hernandez

Sayulita, Mexico – November 18, 2009 – Punta Sayulita is pleased to announce its sponsorship and support of the very talented and aspiring local surfer, Adan Hernandez. Born and raised in Sayulita and still a resident of Sayulita, Adan, 21, has been competing in regional surf contests throughout Mexico and is considered one of Mexico's top rated surfers. Known for his aerial maneuvers and fluid athletic surfing style, last weekend Adan competed in the Zicatlea Pro surf contest in Puerto Escondido, one of Mexico's major surf contests which attracts top ranked international surfers from countries including the United States, Australia, Puerto Rico, New Zealand, Argentina as well as Mexico's top rated surfers. Congratulations to Adan who placed 3rd in the contest and according to some press members covering the event Adan could very well have placed higher.

In addition to being sponsored by Punta Sayulita, Adan is also sponsored by Quiksilver.

Please check back periodically on the "News & Events" page of puntasayulita.com where we will publish Adan's results from future surf contests.
